

Expanding your analytical vocabulary

Vocabulary of process:

Logic/illogic; analysis; evidence & proof

Verbs / Adjectives / Nouns

adverse, adversarial	devise ancillary	disabuse, disabused	premise a priori	etymology	promulgate, promulgation assume, assumed, assumption	entail	reason, reasoned/ unreasoned, reasoning attribute, attributed, attribute	expound	rebut, rebuttal bolster	indicate, indicative	rectify, rectified cause, causal, cause	infer, inference	refute, refuted, refutation conversant	induce, inductive	scrutinize, scrutinized, scrutiny cognizant	insinuate, insinuated	speculate, speculation converse	invert, inverted, inverse	substantiate, substantiated/ unsubstantiated correlate, correlated, correlation	nullify	verify, verified corroborate, corroborated, corroboration	obtain, obtainable	warrant, warranted/ unwarranted deduce, deductive	notice, noticed/unnoticed delve	preempt, preempted derive, derived, derivation	presume, presumptuous, presumption;

Vocabulary of evaluation:

Effectiveness/ineffectiveness; relevance/irrelevance; validity/invalidity; precision/imprecision

Verbs / Adjectives / Nouns

applicable/inapplicable, applicability/inapplicability	diminish, diminished	ludicrous absolute	entice, enticing, enticement	meritorious commend, commendable	erroneous	merit compel, compelling	exemplary	misguided conclude, conclusive/inconclusive	fallacious	nebulous cogent	fallible/infallible, fallibility/ infallibility	onerous, onerousness credible	falsify, false	pertain, pertinent, pertinence credence	flawed, flaw	plausible cumbersome	fathom, fathomable/unfathomable	prudent, prudence dearth	generalize, generalized, generalization	question, questionable, question debunk	instrumental	rigorous, rigor